biography

Texas born, Florida-based guitarist, writer and multi-instrumentalist Michael Vince combines an appealing blend of jazz, funk and soul to deliver his own brand of smooth jazz instrumentals. Along with some fresh new sounds, Michael also delivers an upbeat and exciting live performance that helps to solidify him as one of Smooth Jazz's brightest new talents.

On September 30, 2006, Michael released his self-titled national debut EP featuring super-producer Paul Brown, renowned session bassist Roberto Vally and saxophonist Anthony Long. Michael's debut is currently receiving strong national and international rotation on both FM and internet radio and has consistently charted at SmoothJazz.com throughout the month of October 2006. SmoothVibes.com had this to say about Michael's new release, "[Michael Vince] is definitely top-drawer smooth jazz and the presence of the famous producer and guitarist Paul Brown underscores this fact."
